

ENGL02 Course Description

Module ENGL 02

1. COMMUNICATION

CAN understand instructions on classes and assignments given by the teacher or lecturer.

CAN note down times, dates, and place given by the teachers and lecturers

CAN ask for clarification, but this needs to be given sympathetically in order for it to be understood

CAN understand the general meaning of a lecture, demonstration or presentation on a familiar or predictable topic, where message is clearly expressed in simple language.

CAN give a short, simple presentation or demonstration on a familiar topic.

2. SKILLS

CAN understand simple visual on familiar topics, e.g. weather map if not much explanatory is involve

CAN understand, given sufficient time, most information of a factual nature that he is likely to come across during the course study.

CAN make notes from simple sources that will be of some limited use for essay or revision purposes.

CAN write a simple account of an experiment (methods, materials)

CAN write simple narrative or description, for example, 'My last Holiday', with some inaccuracies in vocabulary and grammar.

CAN assess whether a textbook or an article is within the required topic area

CAN understand basic instructions and messages

CAN make simple notes from written sources

CAN read basic details on arrangements such as lectures, class and exam times, dates and room numbers from classroom boards or notice boards.

CAN write down some information at a lecture, if this is more or less dictated (for example further reading matter) or written on the board.

COMPONENTS and TEXTBOOKS

1. Communication

Headway Intermediate (KSA Edition)

2. Skills

Reading and Writing Supplementary Book ENGL 02

Writing Portfolio

3. Independent Learning

National Geographic 1