

ENGL03 Course Description

Module ENGL 03

1. COMMUNICATION

CAN ask questions, for example for reasons, clarification etc.

CAN give a clear presentation on a familiar topic, and to answer predictable or factual questions.

CAN present his own opinion, and justify opinions.

CAN explain results in practical terms.

CAN present arguments, using a limited range of expression (vocabulary, Grammatical structures)

CAN make notes from simple sources that will be of some limited use for essay or revision purposes.

CAN check that instructions are understood.

2. SKILLS

CAN distinguish main themes from irrelevance and asides

CAN make notes that will be of some limited use for essay or revision purposes, but IS UNLIKELY to be able to take notes accurately unless time is given to write them down

CAN understand most visuals that he is likely to come across, but MAY sometimes have difficulty with textual commentary.

CAN make simple notes that are of reasonable use for essay or revision purposes, capturing most important points.

CAN write an account of an experiment and demonstrate basic understanding of work done.

CAN use bilingual dictionary and establish the first language equivalent of concrete words.

CAN follow central ideas in abstracts.

CAN read all information related to practical arrangements given by teachers and lecturers are likely to write.

CAN cope with writing down changes to arrangements given by the teachers and lecturers.

CAN write down details of all standard arrangements for assignments to be handed in , etc., as given verbally or in notices by teachers and lecturers.

COMPONENTS and TEXTBOOKS

1. Communication

Headway Upper Intermediate

2. Skills

TOEFL Longman Introductory Course (green)

3. Independent Learning

National Geographic 2